

Julie A. Johnson, AuD

EDUCATION

- 1999 – 2003: Gallaudet University – Doctorate of Audiology
2001 – 2005: University of South Florida – Bachelor of Arts in Communication Sciences and Disorders
1996 – 1999: Hillsborough Community College – Associates of Science in Sign Language Interpretation

WORK EXPERIENCE

- 2014 - present: Audiologist/Owner, Johnson Audiology, Hanover, NH
- Perform diagnostic audiologic evaluations and provide treatment of hearing loss through hearing aids and other assistive technology
 - Provide services at two locations: Kendal at Hanover and 2 Dorrance Place, Hanover
- 2008 - 2017: Clinical Coordinator for Adult Audiology Practice, Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center Audiology Clinic, Lebanon, NH
- Instructor in Surgery, Geisel School of Medicine, Dartmouth College, Hanover, NH
- Perform diagnostic audiologic and provide treatment of hearing loss through hearing aids
 - Serve as supervisor/administrator to Adult Team Audiologists
 - Design and oversee Audiology doctoral externship program
 - Lead implementation of electronic audiogram/medical record (Audbase)
 - Serve on Audiology/Otolaryngology leadership team
- 2003 -present: Clinical Audiologist, Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center Audiology Clinic, Lebanon, NH
- Instructor in Surgery, Geisel School of Medicine, Dartmouth College, Hanover, NH
- Perform diagnostic audiologic, vestibular evaluations and hearing aid services for adults
 - Perform diagnostic audiologic and hearing aid services

GRADUATE TRAINING

- 2002-2003: Clinical Externship – Mayo Clinic, Jacksonville, FL
- 2002: Nemours Children’s Clinic, Jacksonville, FL
- 2001: Physician’s Hearing Center, Westminster, MD
- 2001: Veterans’ Affairs Medical Hospital, Washington, DC
- 2000: Georgetown University Medical Center, Washington, DC
- 1999-2001: Gallaudet University Audiology Clinic, Teaching Assistantship, Washington, DC

RELATED PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE/ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- West Lebanon Valley News, Reader’s Choice Award, Johnson Audiology, Hanover, NH.
- Preceptor for audiology doctoral students, Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center, 2008-present
- Presenter, Otolaryngology for the Primary Care Provider Conference, Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center, Lebanon, NH, 2009 and 2015
- Presenter, Audiology and Otolaryngology Health Education Day, Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center, Lebanon, NH, 2014
- Presenter, Lebanon, Hanover, and Woodstock Senior Centers and Kendal of Hanover, “How to be a Savvy Hearing Aid Consumer”, 2011, 2018, 2019.
- Resource for Valley News article, “Intense Volume in Devices Raises Hearing Concerns”, 2006
- Designed an Assistive Listening Center and Aural Rehabilitation Course, Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center, 2003
- Outstanding Graduate Student Achievement Award, Gallaudet University, 2003
- Excellence in Interpreting Award, Hillsborough Community College, 1999

PROFESSIONAL SOCIETIES

- American Academy of Audiology, fellow since 2003
- American Board of Audiology, board-certified audiologist since 2008
- Kendal of Hanover, Kendal Hearing Support Committee, member since 2014

RESEARCH

- Examination of elderly patients with strong caloric evoked nystagmus without the perception of vertigo. Mayo Clinic externship research project. Poster session presented at: Annual Conference of the American Academy of Audiology; 2004 April 2; Salt Lake City, Utah.
- Comparison of Hearing Aid Fittings with and without the use of a Personal Hard-Wired Stand-Alone Amplification System (PHSAS). Gallaudet University Doctoral Research Presentation; 2003; Washington, DC.